

Embrace Hope!

Welcome to the U-CAN! MAN Website!

Thank you for visiting my Empowerment through Encouragement shuttle!

July 2009 this website was created with the intention of setting out to help increase African American male highschool and college graduation rates. The final results were astonishing and can be summed up with the theme song for Secret Deoderant.

"Strong enough for a man, but made for a woman."

I can now say that my 6 proven strategies for hope are strong enough for ALL Americans but made for African American males.

I hope you can embrace the hope given to you through this program!
