74. Esther 2:5-11 New King James Version (NKJV)
75. ⁵ In Shushan the citadel there was a certain Jew whose name was Mordecai the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite.
76. ⁶ Kish^[a] had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives who had been captured with Jeconiah^[b] king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.
77. ⁷ And Mordecai had brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle’s daughter, for she had neither father nor mother. The young woman was lovely and beautiful. When her father and mother died, Mordecai took her as his own daughter.
78. ⁸ So it was, when the king’s command and decree were heard, and when many young women were gathered at Shushan the citadel, under the custody of Hegai, that Esther also was taken to the king’s palace, into the care of Hegai the custodian of the women.
79. ⁹ Now the young woman pleased him, and she obtained his favor; so he readily gave beauty preparations to her, besides her allowance. Then seven choice maidservants were provided for her from the king’s palace, and he moved her and her maidservants to the best place in the house of the women.
80. ¹⁰ Esther had not revealed her people or family, for Mordecai had charged her not to reveal it
81. ¹¹ And every day Mordecai paced in front of the court of the women’s quarters, to learn of Esther’s welfare and what was happening to her.
82. Point One: Mordecai cared for more than his own
83. Point Two: Mordecai had concern for Esther
84. Point Three: Mordecai provided Godly Wisdom
85. Men need to make sure they do not provide perverted Care for Women
86. Men need to make sure they do not provide perverted Concern for Women

89. If your wife does not care about people then she want care about Esther
90. In this case Esther should not have to deal with your spouse
91. Bishop Vaughn McLaughlin and His wife both empowered and encouraged Dr Lewis
92. Look at Esther 2:19-20

93. ¹⁹ When the virgins were assembled a second time, Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate.
94. ²⁰ But Esther had kept secret her family background and nationality just as Mordecai had told her to do, for she continued to follow Mordecai's instructions as she had done when he was bringing her up.
95. Esther listened to Mordecai, he had a Spirit of Wisdom and wise counsel
96. Look at Esther 4:6-17
97. ⁶ So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate.
98. ⁷ And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them.
99. ⁸ Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people.
100. ⁹ And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.
101. ¹⁰ Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai;
102. ¹¹ All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or women, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.
103. ¹² And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.
104. ¹³ Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou
105. ¹⁴ For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?
106. ¹⁵ Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer,
107. ¹⁶ Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish.
108. ¹⁷ So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.
109. Esther and Mordecai work together both believing action was needed
110. The call on Esther life was not just for her but the people.

 131. For Mordecai took Esther so Far now she had to figure it out
 132. She was going to see the king, Her dinners was her way,
 133. Esther now had developed her own wisdom based off Mordecai
 134. It was her time and she did not fail of let the people down
 135. Her attitude was if I perish, I perish.
 136. After God came through Esther and Mordecai celebrated together.
 137. The nation of Israel has kept the celebration of Purim to this day.
 138. Their actions have impacted a number of generations.
 139. Had us read together Esther 9:20-29

140. Look at Esther 9:20-29

141. ²⁰ And Mordecai wrote these things and sent letters to all the Jews, near and far, who were in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus,
 142. ²¹ to establish among them that they should celebrate yearly the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar,
 143. ²² as the days on which the Jews had rest from their enemies, as the month which was turned from sorrow to joy for them, and from mourning to a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and joy, of sending presents to one another and gifts to the poor.
 144. ²³ So the Jews accepted the custom which they had begun, as Mordecai had written to them,
 145. ²⁴ because Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to annihilate them, and had cast Pur (that is, the lot), to consume them and destroy them;
 146. ²⁵ but when Esther^[a] came before the king, he commanded by letter that this^[b] wicked plot which Haman had devised against the Jews should return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.
 147. ²⁶ So they called these days Purim, after the name Pur. Therefore, because of all the words of this letter, what they had seen concerning this matter, and what had happened to them,
 148. ²⁷ the Jews established and imposed it upon themselves and their descendants and all who would join them, that without fail they should celebrate these two days every year, according to the written instructions and according to the prescribed time,

149. ²⁸ that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city, that these days of Purim should not fail to be observed among the Jews, and that the memory of them should not perish among their descendants.
150. ²⁹ Then Queen Esther, the daughter of Abihail, with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter about Purim.
151. At the end Dr Lewis read from a reading that said God is not mention in the book of Esther but God's hand is operating throughout the entire book.
152. At the end "In The Last Days We Need More Mordecai's"
153. There was a call for Esther's and Mordecai's to come forward for prayer,
154. Dr Lewis prayed for all the Esther's
155. Bishop Vaughn McLaughlin prayed for all the Mordecai's

12. ⁹ Now the young woman pleased him, and she obtained his favor; so he readily gave beauty preparations to her, besides her allowance. Then seven choice maidservants were provided for her from the king's palace, and he moved her and her maidservants to the best place in the house of the women.
13. ¹⁰ Esther had not revealed her people or family, for Mordecai had charged her not to reveal it.

15. ¹⁵ Now when the turn came for Esther the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her as his daughter, to go in to the king, she requested nothing but what Hegai the king's eunuch, the custodian of the women, advised. And Esther obtained favor in the sight of all who saw her.
16. ¹⁶ So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus, into his royal palace, in the tenth month, which is the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.
17. ¹⁷ The king loved Esther more than all the other women, and she obtained grace and favor in his sight more than all the virgins; so he set the royal crown upon her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.
18. ¹⁸ Then the king made a great feast, the Feast of Esther, for all his officials and servants; and he proclaimed a holiday in the provinces and gave gifts according to the generosity of a king.

19. ¹⁹ When virgins were gathered together a second time, Mordecai sat within the king's gate.
20. ²⁰ Now Esther had not revealed her family and her people, just as Mordecai had charged her, for Esther obeyed the command of Mordecai as when she was brought up by him.

32. The King Honors Mordecai
33. ^{6: 1} That night the king could not sleep. So one was commanded to bring the book of the records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.
34. ² And it was found written that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, the doorkeepers who had sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus.
35. ³ Then the king said, "What honor or dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this?" And the king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him."
36. ⁴ So the king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the king's palace to suggest that the king hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.
37. ⁵ The king's servants said to him, "Haman is there, standing in the court." And the king said, "Let him come in."
38. ⁶ So Haman came in, and the king asked him, "What shall be done for the man whom the king delights to honor?" Now Haman thought in his heart, "Whom would the king delight to honor more than me?"
39. ⁷ And Haman answered the king, "For the man whom the king delights to honor,
40. ⁸ let a royal robe be brought which the king has worn, and a horse on which the king has ridden, which has a royal crest placed on its head.
41. ⁹ Then let this robe and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that he may array the man whom the king delights to honor. Then parade him on horseback through the city square, and proclaim before him: 'Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor!'"
42. ¹⁰ Then the king said to Haman, "Hurry, take the robe and the horse, as you have suggested, and do so for Mordecai the Jew who sits within the king's gate! Leave nothing undone of all that you have spoken."
43. ¹¹ So Haman took the robe and the horse, arrayed Mordecai and led him on horseback through the city square, and proclaimed before him, "Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor!"
44. ¹² Afterward Mordecai went back to the king's gate. But Haman hurried to his house, mourning and with his head covered.

45. ¹³ When Haman told his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him, his wise men and his wife Zeresh said to him, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Jewish descent, you will not prevail against him but will surely fall before him."
46. ¹⁴ While they were still talking with him, the king's eunuchs came, and hastened to bring Haman to the banquet which Esther had prepared.
47. John remember this, something you have told or done will be the link to your being a God made millionaire in 2015

53. 8:1 On that day King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the house of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. And Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had told how he was related to her.
54. ² So the king took off his signet ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai; and Esther appointed Mordecai over the house of Haman.
55. ³ Now Esther spoke again to the king, fell down at his feet, and implored him with tears to counteract the evil of Haman the Agagite, and the scheme which he had devised against the Jews.
56. ⁴ And the king held out the golden scepter toward Esther. So Esther arose and stood before the king,
57. ⁵ and said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in his sight and the thing seems right to the king and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to revoke the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to annihilate the Jews who are in all the king's provinces.
58. ⁶ For how can I endure to see the evil that will come to my people? Or how can I endure to see the destruction of my countrymen?"
59. ⁷ Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew, "Indeed, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and they have hanged him on the gallows because he tried to lay his hand on the Jews.
60. ⁸ You yourselves write a decree concerning the Jews, as you please, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's signet ring; for whatever is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's signet ring no one can revoke."
61. ⁹ So the king's scribes were called at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third day; and it was written, according to all that Mordecai commanded, to the Jews, the satraps, the governors, and the princes of the provinces from India to Ethiopia, one hundred and twenty-seven provinces in all, to every province in its own script, to every people in their own language, and to the Jews in their own script and language.
62. John Mordecai had to work, write, after the enemy Haman was hanged

66. Esther 8:15-17 New King James Version (NKJV)
67. ¹⁵ So Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, with a great crown of gold and a garment of fine linen and purple; and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.
68. ¹⁶ The Jews had light and gladness, joy and honor.
69. ¹⁷ And in every province and city, wherever the king's command and decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a holiday. Then many of the people of the land became Jews, because fear of the Jews fell upon them.
70. John this will be YOU remember God, The People and Yourself, These are your 5 verses for this next chapter in your life. Esther 8:2,15,16,17- Esther 10: 2-5
