

How do you get a king, President, CEO or person in power to listen to you?

- 1) Use a story involving that powerful person
- 2) Be honest and forthright
- 3) Don't attack or criticize
- 4) Introduce a new point of view
- 5) Provide a chance to change the course of action
- 6) Present different courses of action (A, B, and C)
- 7) Allow the person of power to make a change
- 8) Always remember that the king's heart is in the hand of the Lord (Proverbs 21:1)
- 9) Always remember who leads you (Psalm 23)
- 10) Practice! Practice! Practice! these 10 rules until they become second nature

Chaplain John Fischer 2006-07 Timeframe

